

Programmer Analyst

Location: Oklahoma - Tulsa
Category: Information Technology

Position Type: Full-Time
Hours Per Week:

Job Description: Works for and with the Applications Manager to manage, design implement and support all BKEP software applications. Works with all business units and the Business Process group to develop, improve and support BKEP applications and business needs.

- Perform business and systems requirements definition, process design, and develop functional and technical design specifications
- Provides development and support for application systems including SolArc Right Angle, Great Plains, RTS and numerous other applications
- Support upgrades or enhancements to applications and/or interfaces to applications, including testing
- Effectively work with and when necessary deploy and monitor consultants that also provide application development functions
- Delivery of applications and application changes
- Responsible for the applications and change management.
- Performs capacity & resource planning for applications
- Supervises the applications and change processes
- Coaches, motivates and provides guidelines to persons working in the application change process
- Applying standard process and quality standards in the application change process
- Stays up to date with the latest developments within the business lines team
- Pro-actively anticipates future application changes coming from new developments and new projects
- Facilitates/participate in IT audits, guard ICS/SOX standards with regard to the application change management process

Job Requirements:

- 3 – 5 years experience with numerous IT environments and applications systems
- Experience with Great Plains accounting software and SolArc Right Angle preferred
- 4 year college degree or equivalent experience
- Ability to be on call after normal office hours

To apply for this position please click on the following link:

<https://home.eease.com/recruit/?id=515517>